

When you select AD Space a new window will appear

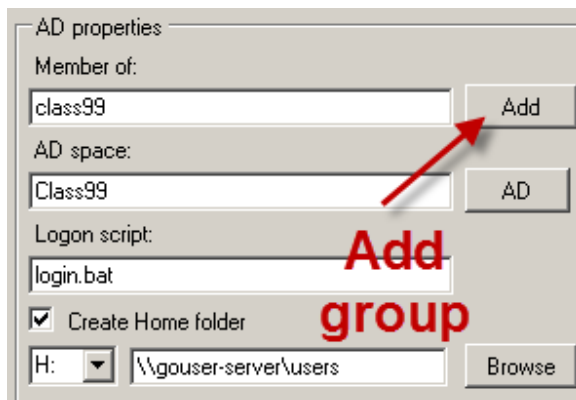

You can select which OU you want the users account to be placed.

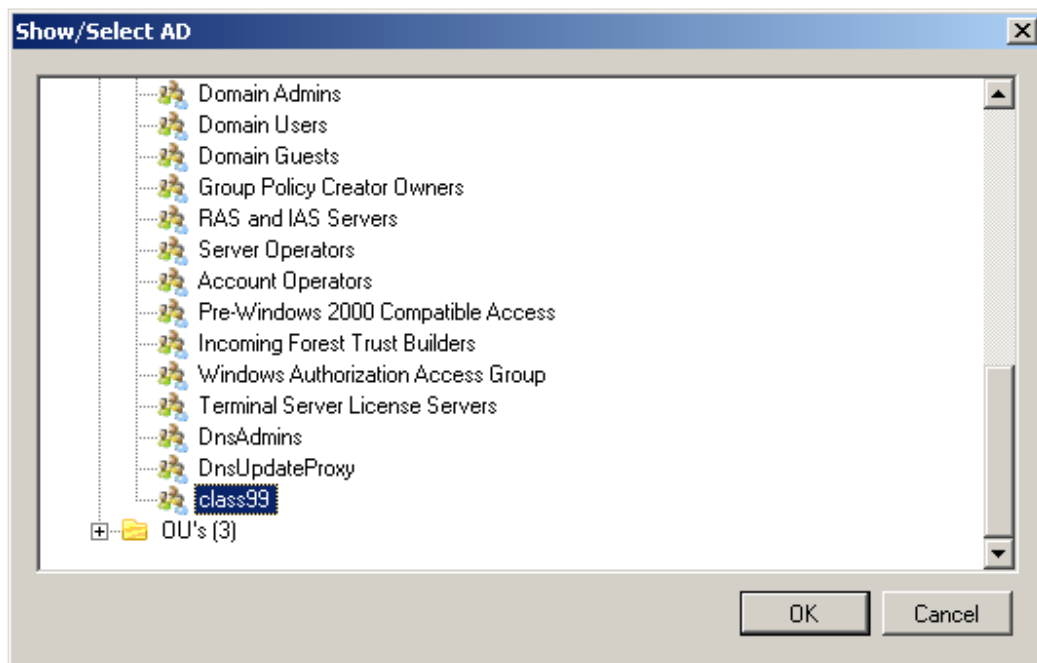

If you do not select any OU the users will be placed in the default users container.

When you select Add member/group

A new window will appear, select the group you want to add to the user

Click OK